CONCLUSION

Many of the objections to studying Revelation are resolved when properly addressed. Revelation completes the story of Jesus that began in Genesis and continues throughout all of Scripture. That is why there are over 800 references to the Old Testament in the 404 verses of Revelation.² It is indeed an unveiling of the glorified Jesus, while providing multiple details concerning our future timeline. The result of God's provision of Revelation for the believer is comfort, hope and blessing while living in a dark and difficult world. It is our hope and prayer that you will study the book of Revelation, experience its blessing, and be energized to share Jesus to a lost and dying world.

Dr. Warren E. Weaver Service Award

“For Following our Lord’s Example of Service to Others”

The Dr. Warren E. Weaver Service Award was established in 1990 "to identify the person who most exemplifies the Lord's example in service to others through CPFI." The award is given only when the awards committee and/or the CPFI Board determine that there is an outstanding individual who deserves recognition.

The 2021 Dr. Warren E. Weaver Service Award was presented to Jennifer Sands at the CPFI Annual Conference and National Student Retreat held virtually due to COVID-19.

Jennifer’s Christian walk through the grace of God has been one of transformation from great personal tragedy when her husband was killed on September 11. You can read about her personal faith journey in her three-book series, “A Tempered Faith: Rediscovering Hope in the Ashes of Loss”, “A Teachable Faith: Learning from God in Everyday Life”, and “A Treasured Faith: Refining a Heart for the Riches of Christ”. In addition to being a Christian author, Jennifer is also a nationally known Christian speaker and Bible teacher, and she regularly leads Bible tours to Israel.

Jennifer has been an active CPFI member from the moment she joined in 2006. From seeking ways to enforce CPFI's public presence, to presenting at Annual Conferences, leading prayer breakfasts, and contributing as well as assisting with the editing of CPFI's professional journal, Christianity & Pharmacy, she has been a true blessing to the organization. Her exceptional editing skills and creative cover designs have significantly improved the journal due to her efforts.

Please join the Board of Directors in congratulating Jennifer Sands.
